Students Learning With Communities 2019
Community of practice – Latest schedule, Semester 2

February
- TU Dublin College Awareness of Road Safety (CARS) project planning meeting - 5 Feb 1-2pm (with light lunch)
  For TU Dublin Staff & Students interested in collaborative Road Safety projects

March
- Workshop exploring how to incorporate community-engaged learning/research into your module(s) - in collaboration with Learning, Teaching and Technology Centre, with a case study from Claire McDonnell (School of Chemical and Pharmaceutical Sciences). 21st March 1-3pm (with light lunch) https://www.eventbrite.ie/e/how-to-incorporate-community-engaged-learning-research-into-your-module-tickets-55704712294
  For TU Dublin staff who haven’t previously used this pedagogical method

April
- Webinar on curriculum-based engagement with communities - 1 April 3-4pm (1 hour) Spatial Planning project case studies from TU Dublin and Queen’s University Belfast, followed by Q&A. In collaboration with InSPIRES project and Living Knowledge Network. https://goo.gl/forms/RUUCPKRDqDWK4m2M2
  For Staff, Students and Community Partners interested in curriculum-based engagement.

- TU Dublin College Awareness of Road Safety (CARS) project showcase - 30 April 4-6pm (with tea/coffee)
  For interested TU Dublin staff, students and community partners

May
- Students Learning With Communities annual awards - 7 May 4-6pm (followed by refreshments) https://www.eventbrite.ie/e/tu-dublin-city-campus-students-learning-with-communities-annual-awards-tickets-55705928933
  For interested TU Dublin staff, students and community partners

June
- Community partner networking event, followed by Facilitated networking event 11 June 12-1pm (Community partners only) and 1-2pm (community with TU Dublin staff/PhDs) with light lunch.
  https://www.eventbrite.ie/e/community-partner-networking-event-followed-by-facilitated-networking-event-tickets-55707549781
  For interested TU Dublin staff, PhD students and community partners

ALSO: further webinars on curriculum-based engagement with communities will be hosted throughout the year, in collaboration with our partners in Queen’s University Belfast, University of Guelph, Vrije Universiteit Brussel, and Corvinus University Budapest, the InSPIRES project and the Living Knowledge Network – dates and details to follow.