Job-Sharing Scheme for Academic Staff

TU Dublin City Campus ONLY

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>HR Policy Document Record</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Reference Number</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Policy Owner</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Approval Body</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Creation Date</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Revision Date(s)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
1. APPROVAL OF APPLICATIONS

   1.1. Applications for job-sharing will be assessed and approved by the University. The University will consider favourably applications under the scheme. Each University will develop a policy on job-sharing specific to its own needs and communicate it to its staff. In developing a policy the welfare and educational needs of the students will take precedence over all other considerations. While applicants will be facilitated as far as possible some applications may have to be refused.

2. BASIS OF SCHEME

   2.1. The word “Lecturer” used in this Scheme shall be deemed to include a permanent wholetime Assistant Lecturer, Lecturer, Senior Lecturer 1 (Teaching).

   2.2. The term “job sharer” as referred to in this Scheme means a permanent wholetime lecturer who opts to job-share their post for a minimum period of one year from the start of the academic year.

   2.3. This scheme provides that:

   (a) A permanent wholetime lecturer may make application to share their wholetime teaching post with another permanent wholetime lecturer at the same level and in the same subject area on a 50:50 basis. On approval of the application both job-sharers will be time-tabled to teach half the weekly hours appropriate to their grade and assigned non teaching duties associated with the grade in accordance with the job description for the permanent wholetime post. Both job-sharers will be required to liaise with each other as appropriate to ensure that the service provided to the student or University is not adversely affected as a result of the job-sharing arrangement.

   OR

   (b) A permanent wholetime lecturer may make application to share their wholetime teaching post on a 50:50 basis through the temporary employment of a part-time lecturer. On approval of the application, the permanent post holder will be time-tabled to teach half the weekly hours appropriate to their grade and assigned non teaching duties associated with the grade in accordance with the job description for the permanent whole-time post. A temporary part-time lecturer will be employed on an appropriate contract to perform the teaching and non-teaching duties associated with the other half of the post. Both post holders will be required to liaise with each other as appropriate to ensure that the service provided to the student or University is not adversely affected by the job-sharing arrangement.

3. ELIGIBILITY TO PARTICIPATE IN THE SCHEME

   3.1. To be eligible to apply for job-sharing lecturers must have completed their probationary period. In the case of Senior Lecturer (Teaching), they must have completed one year at that grade.

   3.2. Directors, Senior Lecturer 2 and Senior Lecturer 3 and L2 (S) are not eligible to participate in the Scheme.

4. DURATION OF JOB-SHARING

   4.1. A lecturer must participate in the scheme for a minimum period of twelve months from the beginning of the academic year. Each job-sharing arrangement must be approved annually by the University.
4.2. Applications for job sharing must be submitted to the Director by 1st March of the academic year preceding the academic year the job-sharing is to commence. The application for an extension to job-sharing must be forwarded to the managerial authority by the 1st March. The University, will in as far as is possible, respond to an application by 20th April. The latest date for withdrawal of an application for job-sharing, except for circumstances as outlined below, is 1st June. Any application for withdrawal must be in writing to the managerial authority.

4.3 A lecturer on career break or other approved leave of absence may apply to job-share on resumption of teaching duties but the application must be submitted in accordance with the terms outlined in the two paragraphs above.

4.4 The timetable arrangements for job-sharing lecturers should be designed within the spirit of the scheme to facilitate the lecturer so far as is practicable. The particular needs of posts will largely determine what patterns of job-sharing are possible. Every effort will be made to notify job-sharing lecturers of their timetabled hours and the pattern of job-sharing in advance. Ideally this should be concluded by 20th April. The University shall determine the particular attendance regime to apply to each shared post.

4.5 A job-sharing lecturer shall resume full-time employment at the end of the agreed job-sharing period.

4.6 Applications may not be withdrawn after 1st June except in exceptional circumstances. An University may consider applications for an earlier return to full-time employment if the applicant can be accommodated with the approved staffing allocation. Any such request for withdrawal must be in writing to the managerial authority.

5. DUTIES

5.1 It will be a matter for the Director to satisfy themselves that those sharing a wholetime post operate satisfactory arrangements for consulting with each other to fulfil all the responsibilities, teaching and non teaching, of the wholetime post, to the satisfaction of the University.

5.2 A job-sharing lecturer shall carry out all such duties (appropriate to their academic grade) as are assigned to them in accordance with collective agreements arrived at from time to time relating to full-time academic grades and authorised by the relevant Government Department.

5.3 Where the applicant is a Senior Lecturer 1 (Teaching), they, in conjunction with the relevant University management (and prior to an agreement of the granting of the Job Sharing) will agree the allocation of the additional duties of the Senior Lecturer 1 (Teaching) post to be performed while Job Sharing.

6. PAY

6.1 Job-sharers participating in the scheme in general enjoy pro-rata arrangements with their full-time colleagues in relation to pay, teaching hours and conditions of employment.

6.2 The rate of pay applicable to a job-sharer is a scale, each point of which shall represents 50% of the corresponding point on the scale of pay which would apply if they had remained in wholetime employment.

6.3 A job-sharing teacher will qualify for incremental credit on a scale of pay as described in the paragraph above and subject to regulations in force from time to time.
6.4 A job-sharer returning to full-time employment will be assimilated to the scale appropriate to a wholetime lecturer in accordance with regulations authorised by the Minister for Education and Science from time to time.

7. PROMOTION
7.1 A job-sharer will be eligible for promotion, subject to the following conditions:-

7.1.2 for the purpose of reckonable qualifying service, credit will be given for job-sharing service on the same basis as full-time service.

7.1.3 an offer of appointment to a post will be conditional on the teacher concerned undertaking to perform on a full time basis the duties of the new post.

8. LEAVE
8.1 Leave will be granted in accordance with collective agreements arrived at from time to time relating to full-time academic grades and authorised by the relevant Government Department.

9. COMPASSIONATE LEAVE
9.1 Three days leave with pay is allowable if the job-sharer is scheduled to be in attendance on the days that the compassionate leave is sought. The prior approval of the Director must be obtained.

10. SICK LEAVE
10.1 Incremental salary may continue to be paid to a job-sharing lecturer during absence owing to illness for a period, or periods, which in the aggregate do not exceed 365 days in any four consecutive years subject to the conditions listed hereunder:

10.1.1 In the case of job-sharers, each working day’s absence on grounds of ill-health counts as one day’s sick leave;

10.1.2 Where sick leave absences span weekends or other non-working days all the intervening days shall count as sick leave;

10.1.3 In reckoning the aggregate sick leave, casual absences will be taken into account, as will periods of University closure occurring in the course of a lecturer’s absence, unless a Medical Certificate is furnished indicating the date of termination of sick leave and provided the job-sharer resumes duty immediately after the period of closure.

10.2 The period of sick leave after which the production of a certificate from a duly qualified medical practitioner is required in order to obtain payment of salary will be as for wholetime lecturers. Where a job-sharer is absent for more than three consecutive days on which they are scheduled to be in attendance a medical certificate must be supplied.

11. MATERNITY LEAVE/ADOPTIVE LEAVE
11.1 The arrangements applying to lecturers in relation to maternity leave and adoptive leave are, in general as specified in the Maternity Protection Act, 1994 and Adoptive Leave Act, 1995 and the relevant Statutory Instruments. There is no distinction in the Acts between staff who are working full-time and staff who are job-sharing.

11.2 In the Maternity Protection Act, 1994 the period of leave is defined by reference to the expected date of confinement; in the Adoptive Leave Act, 1995 the period of leave is defined by reference to the date the child is placed with the adoptive parents. While on maternity leave or adoptive leave, any salary paid to a job-sharer will be at the job-sharing rate in accordance with the provisions regarding payment during maternity leave or adoptive leave in force at the time.

11.3 Where a lecturer commencing job-sharing in a particular academic year is absent on maternity leave or adoptive leave which overlaps the school vacation in the previous year, they will be granted any entitlement to additional leave due at the full-time rate. If a job-sharer, absent on maternity leave or adoptive leave which overlaps school vacation in a particular year, returns to wholetime post in the following academic year, the lecturer will be granted leave in lieu at the job-sharing rate.

11.4 Parental Leave will be granted to the appointee within the arrangements authorised by the Minister. Force Majeure Leave will be granted in accordance with the provisions of the Parental Leave Act 1998 and any subsequent Acts amending or replacing that Act.

12. OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT
12.1 It is not permissible for a job-sharer to engage in outside employment without the prior written consent of the University and that consent will only be given where it is clear that such outside employment will not affect the job-sharer’s work under the University or be in conflict and/or competition with it.

12.2 Job-sharing lecturers may not engage in regular part-time or long-term substitute teaching.

13. SUPERANNUATION
13.1 A job-sharer who is a member of the Local Government (Superannuation Revision) (Consolidation) Scheme, 1986 or the Local Government (Superannuation) Act, 1956 (Consolidation) Scheme, 1987 shall be eligible for superannuation benefits on the same basis as full-time staff, save that each year of service given in a job-sharing capacity will reckon as six months full-time service for superannuation purposes. Pensionable salary will be based on full-time salary.

14. REVIEW
14.1 The job-sharing scheme may be reviewed at the request of the relevant Government Department or the Minister for Finance, or Technological University Dublin, or the Institutes, or the Teachers’ Union of Ireland.

15. QUERIES ON THIS POLICY

TU Dublin, Grangegorman
E-Mail: hr.grangegorman@tudublin.ie
Contact: Leave & Benefits Manager
Tel: 01 220 5228