

Financial Implications of Withdrawing/ Deferring Your Place on a DIT Programme

Student Type	September Start Students	January Start Students	Financial Implications	Fee Liability if returning to Third Level Education
Undergraduate Full Time	Defer/ Withdraw on or before 31st October	Not Applicable	Refund student contribution charge and tuition fee (if paid) in the year of deferral/withdrawal less an administration charge of €100	No Liability - If first time undergraduate
	Defer/ Withdraw between 1st November - 31st January	Not Applicable	Students are liable for payment of 50% of fees for the academic session. Amounts paid in excess of 50% of total fee will be refunded less an administration charge of €100 i.e. no refund on the amount paid to register.	50% Tuition fee liability - If first time undergraduate
	After 31st January	Not Applicable	No Refund of any fees.	100% Tuition fee liability - If first time undergraduate
Postgraduate Full Time	On or before 31st October	On or before 28th February	Refund student contribution charge and tuition fee (if paid) in the year of withdrawal/deferral less an administration charge of €100
	Between 1st November - 31st January	Between 1st March - 31st May	Students are liable for payment of 50% of fees for the academic session. Amounts paid in excess of 50% of total fee will be refunded less an administration charge of €100 i.e. no refund on the minimum amount paid to register.
	After 31st January	After 31st May	No Refund of any fees.
Part Time Student	On or before 31st October	On or before 28th February	Refund tuition fee (if paid) in the year of withdrawal/deferral less an administration charge of €100
	Between 1st November - 31st January	Between 1st March - 31st May	Students are liable for payment of 50% of fees for the academic session. Amounts paid in excess of 50% of total fee will be refunded less an administration charge of €100 i.e. no refund on the amount paid to register.
	After 31st January	After 31st May	No Refund of any fees.	