

DIT Health & Safety News

What's New? Autumn 2012

Welcome Back!!

We hope you had a nice Summer.....A quick update of what's new from the Health and Safety Office.

New Health and Safety Website

Please take time to visit our new health and safety website at www.dit.ie/safework. We hope it is more user friendly and appreciate any further suggestions/feedback you may have.

Follow us on Twitter and like us on facebook

Be sure to follow us on Twitter so you get all the up to date tweets!!
Like us on facebook!

Now available

New safety booklets and safety wallet cards are now available from the Health and Safety Office and will be available for induction.

European Safety Week 22nd October 2012

The theme this year is "Working together for Risk Prevention".
We are working in conjunction with the Students Union for this one.

What is planned for this semester.....

- ⇒ We hope to launch our new online incident reporting form.
- ⇒ Preparation of new guideline presentations for most of our policies.
- ⇒ Launch of our new safety statement template.
- ⇒ Health & Safety Training: Check out the Staff Training and Development website for details of all our training planned.

Safetymatters